BEAUTY IN AMERICA GREATEST IN WORLD, SAYS ARTIST HELLEU

PARIS, June 1.—Paul Helleu, the eminent painter of women, on returning from New York says:
"The American women are the most beautiful in the world. There is the greatest quantity of beauties there, and also the largest proportion of the women are beautiful. I found beauty as common among the middle classes and the poor working people as on Fifth Avenue, and they are just as noticeable as that of society women."
"The society women are not cold, as is thought by the French; they are enthusiastic, only they display an exclusive taste in emotions. They are as well dressed as the Parisiennes and are far healthier, taking more health. They have at once the grace of health and the grace of femininity."
"To find a pretty woman in Paris one must go to the rooms and search long among the gowns models. The society women one finds there have beautiful clothes, but they have not handsome faces."
"I found the American women very intelligent, spiritual, witty and companionable."
Helleu is making up an album of the ten prettiest women of Paris, New York, London and Buenos Ayres. He says the New Yorkers are far and away the prettiest, and he believes it is because the great mixture of races there is reviving the physique and producing the purest blood and the finest health.

Because Canada Failed.
LONDON, June 1.—The British Government has decided to lay down three battleships on the programme adopted this year immediately instead of next March, as was intended, because the Canadian Senate rejected the bill to appropriate $25,000,000 for three Dreadnoughts for the British Navy.

A Remarkable Offering of Men's Twenty Dollar Suits at $20

A man said to us the other day: "What do you think of so-and-so offering $30 suits for $20?"

And we said to him: "So-and-so is the best judge of the value of his own merchandise."

Gentlemen, we have a wonderful line of Twenty Dollar Suits awaiting your inspection.

It is not improbable that many clothing shops would state their worth as thirty dollars or more.

We will even admit that they are worth that much according to the standards of some stores.

But according to our standards, they are worth just twenty dollars and all of twenty dollars.

If, however, you want a thirty dollar suit at twenty dollars, Saks is not the store for you.

There are two reasons why we do not sell $30 Suits at $20: First, we cannot afford it; second, the judgment of the public renders it quite unnecessary.

But we will sell you a twenty dollar suit for twenty dollars that, for individuality of style, cannot be matched at this price North, South, East nor West of the Saks Store.

Pencil Stripes at $20	Blue Serges at $20	Gray Flannels at $20

Tailored in English close-fitting models; the coats with soft collar, and trim cuffs, and just soot enough generally to be the quintessence of good style. Also in regulation models, for those who prefer them. But excellence is common to both, for they are tailored and finished with a snap and youthfulness of line that is a joy to the beholder and to the beheld! Drop in to-day or Saturday!

The long and the short of it in WOMEN'S CHAMOIS SUEDE GLOVES

The long and short chamois gloves in this sale were ordered away back last Fall from a European glove manufacturer who has made his reputation on chamois suede products. And by dint of persuasion and some insistence we struck a very profitable bargain, placing this order at a substantial margin below regular prices. So that, in view of the price and considering the desirability of the glove itself, this is a splendid opportunity to stock up with Summer gloves of the right kind.

Elbow Length Chamois Suede Gloves at 55c

Made with wide arms, Mousquetaire style, with two clasps at wrist. Finished with smart two-corded backs. White and chamois yellow.

Two Clasp Chamois Suede Gloves at 38c

Saks Norfolk Suits at $15 for Youths of discrimination

There are a lot of Norfolks in the world these days. And, of course, a belt and a pair of pleats actually do constitute a Norfolk suit. But for the young man who wants in his Norfolk garment something more than a belt and a brace of pleats, the Saks Norfolk is the solution of the difficulty. Belted it is, pleated it is; but it has other features, too. It has tailoring which is superb, and it is cut with a style which no other house can duplicate, no matter how it tries. These Norfolks are made in fancy mixtures and blue serges, half or full belted, and they are the living likeness of what a smart Norfolk should be. Designed on English lines, of course, which hug the figure and give the wearer an easy, debonaire appearance. Possibly, there is, there can be, nothing smarter in a youthful Norfolk, and we know of none that can match the style of these.

Sizes 30 to 36. Ages 14 to 20.

Black China Silk Blouses value $3.95 at $2.95 tomorrow

Made of exceptionally fine quality black China silk, with low neck, Robespierre collar, and your choice of long and three-quarter sleeves. Two rows of black satin buttons down the front, and a few on the cuffs. A mourning blouse that is just as dainty in design as it is substantial in cost. Third floor

Tailored Shirts for Women worth $1.50 tomorrow at $1.00

Made of absolutely pure linen, cotton crepe, criss bar fabric and dimity, in mannish tailored models, with the alternative of a soft turn over collar, if you wish it. Long and three-quarter sleeves. Sizes 34 to 44. One may well wonder how such a cheaply made and finished shirt waist can be offered at one dollar. As a matter of fact, it can't be offered at such a price except in special instances like this. Main floor

WHITE HEMP HATS, Ostrich Trimmed, worth all of $8.50 special to-morrow at $5

The white hemp hat is already so popular among smart women that we are under no necessity to economize on prices. But that is not our way of doing things. We economize on prices always, regardless of such a consideration as that mentioned. And in this instance we have made a very substantial economy on a hat which is one of the prettiest vogues in trimmed millinery. There are about ten different shapes in this sale, all new, all distinctive. They are trimmed with a band of ostrich plume that rises with renewed glory from the back. It is a hat you will take to, a hat that will become you, and one that will carry with it the recollection of having cost you little to buy.
